September 2014

"Be watchful, stand firm in your faith, be courageous, be strong.
Let all that you do be done in love." 1 Corinthians 16: 13-14

WHY WORSHIP?

Occasionally I hear someone talk about worship like they think it is a spiritual version of Red Bull: "I go to worship to be energized so I can make it through the week." I suppose that is fine as far as it goes. But it just doesn't go far enough. I think it is great for people to feel emotionally pumped up at worship. But that is a bad measure of whether worship is serving its purpose.

Worship is expressive and formative. We are to worship, as Jesus said, "in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). On the one hand, we come together to express our love and loyalty to God. We sing and pray, offering thanks and praise. We joyfully honor God for giving us life, forgiveness, guidance, and more. We celebrate the love of God as we bask in the presence of the Lord of glory. Worship is something we do before God, expressing our faith.

On the other hand, faithful worship is formative. God does something to us as we come together in worship. If our worship is patterned after the wondrous story of God's saving act that culminates in Jesus Christ, our lives are touched and shaped in Christ-like ways as we worship. We learn to see in new ways, ways that arise from what God has done in Christ, ways that lead to broader and deeper love in a frequently unloving world.

Worship is training for life in the Kingdom of God. Jesus taught us to pray, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." And the Kingdom of God is the real world. Worship trains us to see with Kingdom of God eyes and not be deluded by the sort of "realism" that excuses violence, greed, and hostile divisions that set peoples against each other. Worship prepares us to live with kindness, generosity, forgiveness, and non-discriminating hospitality.

Sadly, we don't always pay sufficient attention to what we are doing in worship. Consequently, we don't learn to see and live out the implications of our worship practices. We fail to prolong the story we present in worship as we live our lives after the benediction. Instead we allow other stories to shape us, stories that emphasize fear and suspicion or that glorify vengeance and violence, greed and selfishness, self-importance and pride.

Worship is one of the primary means God uses to "get under our skin" so we will embody what the Lordship of Jesus means and put it in practice. Good worship doesn't just "meet our needs." It helps us see that we often are all wrong about what we need because we don't see what is really real. As we rightly worship we prepare ourselves to be blessed and to be a blessing for others. So let us come together and worship.

Grace and Peace,
Craig

PRESCHOOL NEWS FROM MS MARGIE

Our new school year has begun. The children are settling in and making new friends, and we see lots of excitement as we walk down the halls. Music classes with Ms. Stacey began this week and now mornings include joyful singing and dancing. Our new director, Cindi Watts, is also settling in. She's been out and about, trying to meet all of you, but please stop by to introduce yourself if she's missed you. Come by any time if you have questions or concerns.

We want to express gratitude for all who put in extra time and effort to get our new school year started, and special thanks to "Mr. Claudio" for always being cheerful and very helpful during "crunch times".

Please join us on Sunday 9/21, at 10:45 AM, for our "Welcome Sunday" church service and reception. This is a special day when you can join other preschool families and teachers, to worship with, and to meet the members of Royal Palm Christian Church. Your children are learning some special praise songs, and will be invited to sing for us all. Lunch will be served following the service in the Fellowship Hall.

We are looking for volunteers to help with our preschool garden. Last year the children enjoyed planting, caring for, and harvesting many yummy and interesting vegetables. Please give us a call if you'd like to get involved in this fun project.

Our Church Family

WE FELT LIKE WE BELONG ON THE FIRST VISIT

The Nazaire family -- Mazo (dad), Marie (mom), children: Christiana, Maxine, Mera, Alexandra and Kaylah -- felt "at home" from the beginning they started attending RPCC. They were so taken by the "friendly, warm, welcoming and family atmosphere" of the church that they placed membership few weeks ago. It was a huge leap for this family that has been attending St. Andrews Catholic church for ten years. "We feel connected here" said Marie. Maxo is an anesthesiologist and Marie is a hospice nurse. Their five beautiful daughters, ages 7 to 27, work and attend schools. The girls are already in youth group and Marie and Maxo want to get involved in church activities. RPCC is delighted to have the Nazaire family as part of our church family and extends them an embracing welcome.

Last month the D-Unit teamed up with our local Cold Stone Creamery to hold a fundraiser. We invited church members, families, and friends alike to visit Cold Stone on August 14th; with Cold Stone donating a portion of its profits from that evening to RPCC. Together we raised $75 for the youth group! Thank you so much to everyone who came out in support of our youth! Special thanks to Sydney Lagogiannis for her hard work in organizing the event. Honorable mention goes to Pastor Craig for dutifully scooping ice cream throughout the fundraiser- thank you for always supporting our youth.

Life Line Screening will be here for Stroke Screenings on Saturday, September 27th. Pre-registration is required. Candee, their representative, will be here on Sunday, August 24th, if you are interested in registering or perhaps you'd like more information. ### MAKING A DIFFERENCE

"REMEMBER THE WORDS OF THE LORD JESUS, FOR HE HIMSELF SAID, 'IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE.'"

- ACTS 20:35B

Each week we host a food pantry for those in need in our community. We try to provide certain necessities to the people who come every week. Many of these items, such as toilet paper, can't be acquired with food stamps. Donations of these items are very helpful and enable us to better aid our clients. Our list includes: toilet paper, feminine pads, peanut butter, tuna, oatmeal, eggs, potatoes, bananas, apples, oranges, and carrots. Because we value our pantry volunteer's time as well as your donations, please be mindful of expiration dates and shelf life.

Thank you for your continuing support! Your ministry helps make a difference in our community.

"Friends,
As God called those he loved friends, I also call you. Being a part of this family is a blessing. Not by chance but by His grace I'm here. Your prayers comforted, encouraged, and lifted me spiritually. I am so thankful for all of the help I receive. God is so good and so are all of you. I pray blessings and needs for this church family every day and evening.

In Christian love,
Rose Diamond"
